LINCOLNSHIRE OPEN HERITAGE DAY CLEETHORPES TOWN HALL

SATURDAY 14 SEPTEMBER 2013 (10.00AM - 4.00 PM)

Once again the Cleethorpes Town Hall is opening its doors to provide people with the opportunity to celebrate "Lincolnshire Heritage Open Days." Everyone is welcome and admission is free.

HELP SOLVE A MYSTERY AT THE CLEETHORPES TOWN HALL!!!

Please help us to discover the identity of two gentlemen – do you know who they are and could you even be related to them. Please visit and view their portraits.

LOCAL HISTORIAN, DR ALAN DOWLING, WILL GIVE A TALK ON THE SIDNEY SUSSEX COLLEGE AND THE BUILDING OF VICTORIAN CLEETHORPES (10.30 AM AND 2.30 PM IN THE KONIGSWINTER ROOM).

Cleethorpes saw a great surge in building during the late Victorian and Edwardian periods. What had been farmland was rapidly covered with thousands of houses. Most of this development took place on land owned by Sidney Sussex College of Cambridge. Dr Dowling will describe how the College came to own the land, what caused the surge in building and how both the College and Cleethorpes benefitted.
