A Fantastic Evening to Look Forward To

Dennis Taylor

Eddie 'the Eagle' Edwards

One of the most instantly recognisable faces in snooker. Dennis is an extremely humorous character and his after dinner speaking is in constant demand. He was the 1985 World Snooker Champion and is now part of the BBC commentary team. He has won titles as far afield as Asia through Europe to Canada. Dennis has also seen cult status following his appearance in BBC Strictly Come Dancing.

Eddie the Eagle was a British skier, who in 1988 became the first competitor to represent Great Britain in Olympic ski jumping. Eddie became famous as an example of a plucky underdog or 'heroic failure', and of perseverance and achievement, without funding, that represents the British Bulldog spirit. In 2013 Eddie was also crowned champion of the Tom Daley inspired celebrity diving show 'Splash'.
