

Trawlermen

Their Triumphs and Tragedies

"It was more dangerous to be a Grimsby Trawlerman who swept mines in the North Sea than to be in the Army"

17 September 2016

Cleethorpes Memorial Hall

Free Admission

Doors open at 12 noon

Join us for a thought provoking afternoon with musical entertainment from Jean whilst you peruse the vast array of interesting memorabilia and photographic displays. Refreshments available

1.00pm - Talk by Kevin Smith 'Lost Trawlers of World War One'

2.00pm - Tea/Coffee & Cakes available

2.45pm - Talk by Susan Watkin 'History of the Fishing Industry'

3.15pm - Talk by David Ormsby of Grimsby Fishing Heritage Centre

friendsofcleethorpesheritage.co.uk

