

Induction and Refresher Training for Trustees

Training workshop for new trustees or those needing to refresh their knowledge

WHAT IS IT?

This short, introductory two-hour workshop is a great start for anyone joining a board for the first time (or needing a refresher). We'll help you to understand the role of a trustee or committee member a bit better, so you know what you should and shouldn't do, how you need to behave and what you need to do to be effective.

MORE INFORMATION

Over the course of two hours we'll help you to understand the role of a trustee or committee member a bit better, so you know what you should and shouldn't do, how you need to behave and what you need to do to be effective.

Trustees will learn:

- what they must do
- what they should do
- what they could do
- how to behave
- how to be useful to the organisation
- how to learn and develop themselves and gain from trusteeship
- how to get support
- how to work as an individual trustee but also as part of the team and more...

We'll take a look at:

- Trusteeship – both an opportunity and a responsibility
- The legal trustee
- The principled trustee
- The purposeful trustee
- The well behaved trustee
- The skilled trustee
- The effective trustee
- The supported trustee
